

THE EXHIBITION

The exhibition will present a rich variety of collections of stamps and postal history from all over the world, exhibited by the most advanced philatelists and collectors worldwide and the Society will display unique collections and pieces from its museum and archives.

THE PARTNERS

Heinrich Köhler Auktionshaus GmbH and Corinphila Auktionen AG and their Partners in the Global Philatelic Network are Philatelic Partners to STOCKHOLMIA 2019. We together expect that the philatelic world will recognise this exhibition as a new milestone in philately.

THE CITY

Stockholm is Sweden's capital and the country's cultural, political, media and economic centre.

THE REGION

It is Sweden's as well as the Nordic region's most populous urban area. Located on the east coast of Sweden on the Baltic Sea, and offering one of the most extensive and beautiful archipelagos in the world.

THE SIGHTS

Stockholm has many attractions, such as the Old Town, the Royal Palace, the Vasa Museum, the Stockholm City Hall, the Museum of Modern Art and the open air museum at Skansen. Moreover, Stockholm offers an extensive selection of shopping opportunities. One of Stockholm's main tourist attractions is the Changing of Guard ceremonies at Stockholm and Drottningholm Palaces.

29 MAY - 2 JUNE

THE INTERNATIONAL CELEBRATION
OF THE 150TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE
ROYAL PHILATELIC SOCIETY LONDON

THE ROYAL

The Royal Philatelic Society London (RPSL) is the oldest philatelic society in the world and was established in 1869 as The Philatelic Society, London. Permission to style itself 'Royal' was granted by His Majesty King Edward VII in 1906. The Royal philatelic tradition has been maintained and today the Society is honoured by the Patronage of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II.

The RPSL will celebrate its 150th anniversary in 2019, and its only international exhibition will be held in Stockholm, officially named:
