- The Royal Philatelic Society London became 'Royal' when His Majesty King Edward VII granted the privilege in 1906, ten years after his son, HRH The Duke of York, became President of the Society
- As Prince of Wales, HRH The Duke of York became King George V in 1910 and continued to act as our Patron, then in 1924 he granted the Society permission to use the Royal Arms on its stationery and publications.
- This patronage has been continued to the present day by Her Majesty The Queen.

Gustaf Douglas FRPSL

The 31 October 2013, the day I gave my comprehensive display to Members and Fellows of the Royal Philatelic Society London, is the greatest day in my 50 years' life with philately as my hobby. The Display was later recognised with the Tilleard Medal by the Society. Contribution to STOCKHOLMIA is my way to show appreciation to The Royal Philatelic Society London for giving the most memorable day in my philatelic life.
